Lot No. 4

No	Item
4/1	Harry Stanley Cane & Hat to Table Designed in the 1960s especially for Johnny Hart's manipulation act, and built by Yimka, one of the leading magical engineers of the day. In view of quality and cost, only a limited number were manufactured – may now be regarded as collector's item, but an eminently practical prop. American equivalents cost between £250 and £400 today. On turning the cane upside down, 3 legs emerge from the knob, and the hat can then be placed on top of the cane using only one hand. Works first time every time. Hat gimmick may be removed and attached to alternative tabletop, if desired. Seller is willing to supply routine to acquire 3 production card loads using this prop.
